your vote. Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: I believe, Mr. President, the voting is so slow that we may speed things up by asking for a Call of the House...

PRESIDENT: Very well.

SENATOR LAMB: ...and roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Shall the House come under Call? Did you ask for a roll call? The question is, shall the House come under Call? Aye or nay. The Clerk will record the vote.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 11 ayes, 0 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The House is under Call. All members of the Legislature, please report to the Legislative Chamber, the House is under Call. Those members in the Legislative Chamber, please look to the front and see that your green light is on recording your presence. A roll call vote has been requested so we will have to have the attendance of all of the members who are not excused. Members are properly to be in their seats during the time the House is under Call. Senator Howard Peterson, would you record your vote. Senator Newell, would you record your green button, please. Senator Haberman. Senator Newell, would you record your button, please. Senator Beutler. Senator Scofield, do you want to push your green button. Senator Hefner. Senator Beutler. While the House is coming under Call, the Chair would take the opportunity to announce that Senator Hannibal has guests in the north balcony. They are 80 eighth graders from the School of Mary Our Queen in Omaha. They are accompanied by their teachers, Father Kenny, Mrs. Meyer, Mr. Knobbe, Miss Esser, Miss Ruhr, Miss Kratochvil and Miss Dougherty. And we welcome you to the Legislature this morning. Also a guest of Senator Rupp from...a member of the American Association of Retired Persons is under the north balcony, Miss Goldie Hagenbuck of Columbus, Nebraska. We are glad to have you here this morning. You are witnessing an attempt to get members of the Legislature onto
